

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE A-13

WASHINGTON POST
21 October 1985

BULLETIN BOARD

TODAY

- Economists representing the Heritage Foundation, Brookings Institution, Cato Institute and the American Enterprise Institute issue a statement on "the perils of trade protectionism," 11 a.m. at the foundation's Davis Policy Center, 214 Massachusetts Ave. NE.
- The reuse of disposable medical devices is the topic of a two-day conference sponsored by Georgetown University's Institute for Health Policy Analysis, and the Georgetown Law Center, beginning today at the Mayflower Hotel. Phone 783-8440 for details.
- Transportation Secretary Elizabeth Hanford Dole addresses a conference on alcohol and drug use in the railroad industry at 9 a.m. in the Federal Aviation Administration auditorium, 800 Independence Ave. SW.
- Sen. David F. Durenberger (R-Minn.) discusses problems raised by counterterrorist activities, and the implications for congressional oversight, at 7 p.m. at the Johns Hopkins University School for Advanced International Studies, 1740 Massachusetts Ave. NW.

EXCERPTED